REVIEW: Reading Exodus 1:15-2:10 Was there anything from Sunday's message or in your reading of this text that you would like to comment on or have any questions about?

1.If God dropped the thought in your mind to put your baby boy in a basket and place the basket in the Nile river where the baby boys are being murdered: What would you think about that thought and would you do it? Why or why not?

2. Has God ever put a thought in your mind to do the opposite of what you would normally do? If so, what was it?

3. What do these scriptures teach us about our opposite God?

Isaiah 55:8-9

Isaiah 53:6

John 11:1-6

4. This is a quick one. According to Hebrews 11:23. Why was Moses' mother able to release him in the place where the babies are being killed?

GOING DEEPER

1.Double bonus Jeopardy question. You do not have to tackle this question, but I hope you do. Pharaoh orders the boys be drowned in the Nile. Now thinking about this, how do you believe this relates to Exodus 14:22-29?

2. Exodus 2:5 Two questions: What would you have thought if you saw "Pharaoh's" daughter spotting the basket? And Sunday Pastor Jim pointed out that this is the Providence of God. Providence is made up of two words meaning: "To see beforehand." So friends, how does our faith and God's providence work together?

3. Quick side note question: In your opinion why does the sister not the mother of Moses follow to see what happens to old Mo?

4. Putting a cap on the whole story read Exodus 2:6-9. Moses' is saved and his mother even gets to nurse him. What do you make of this fantastic turn of events in light of God, faith, providence, etc?

TAKING IT HOME: What is the one thing for you to take home and implement in your life of faith in God?
