

Life Group Questions
For the week of June 26, 2016
From the Series: The 60's

REVIEW: Read Sunday's text, John 3:1-8. Did you have any questions about this passage or from Pastor Jim's message on Sunday? Or maybe you have comments you'd like to contribute from this section of scripture?

MY STORY: This passage begins with a lost person, Nicodemus, hearing a salvation message: You must be born again. Briefly write down and then share how you came Christ and what is one thing about your life that God may have transformed in a moment?

1. Pastor Jim's teaching was centered around being led by the Holy Spirit and this Holy Spirit who lives in the heart of all who put their faith in Jesus will prompt and speak to us by dropping thoughts in our minds. What are your thoughts on that reality?

2. Read I Corinthians 2:10-16. Now staying in the vein of being Led by the Holy Spirit, in your own words, what are some truths this passage teaches us about God the Father, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit in us?

3. Two statements were made on Sunday: One was, "There is a difference between a good idea and a God idea." The other was, "I live in the present but my decisions involve the future." What did you think about these statements in the context of being led by the Holy Spirit?

GOING DEEPER

1. Here is your double Jeopardy bonus question. Read II Samuel 5:17-25. By this time David is now the King. He is a highly skilled seasoned general and warrior with victories under his belt. As you read the story what jumps out at you and what can you glean from it in regards to being led by the Holy Spirit. Really think on this one because you will reap benefits in your relationship with God if you cultivate and practice this.

2. Pastor Jim said that being led by the Holy Spirit involves “letting go of the control” of our lives. What is the difficulty in letting go of the control and yielding to the Word of God and the leading of the Holy Spirit?

TAKING IT HOME: Without application we are just gaining information and Jesus came to give us life not information. What is the one thing from the teaching or tonight that you must take home and implement in your life?

PRAAYER REQUESTS: Ask each person in your life group what they need prayer for and pray for those needs.
